

Bike rack in steel composed of a tube structure in a continuous spiral, equipped with two bases in cast aluminum.

Aparcabicicletas en acero consistente en una estructura en tubo a espiral continua, dotada de dos bases en fundición de aluminio.

RESET

|                                              |                                                                      |       |
|----------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Designer:                                    | Alfredo Tasca                                                        |       |
| Dimensions and weightDimensiones y peso: | 1230x420 mm H 560 mm                                                 | 32 kg |
| Materials/Materiales:                        | Powder coated steel or Stainless steelAcero pintado o Acero Inox |       |
| Fixing/Fijación:                             | Pre-drilled for anchorsPredisposición para tacos                 |       |

